Dewie Collard (Arvide Abernathy)

Wow! I can't believe I am where I am today! Ever since I was a kid I have had the dream of being on the stage, whether that was putting on plays for my family as a 7 year old, belting to every single Broadway song that comes on, or watching other performers knowing that will be me someday, and I've finally made it! This is my 3rd year of doing the musicals at the high school and this year's musical is one of my favorites so far! I feel like I've finally found myself and my castmates make the experience all the better! I feel so blessed to have the role of Arvide, I've worked so hard to get here! I want to thank God, my family and directors for helping me along the way! Theater is my home and it always will be!

Michelle Stucki (Sarah Brown)

Yep! That's right! Another Stucki who is addicted to being on stage. Hi my name is Michelle Stucki and I LOVE the musical. I loved being a moody teenager in Footloose, and a snobby wannabe rich girl in Cinderella, but I have never played a role quite like this before! I love everyone in the cast I have gotten to know this year and could not be more excited for you to see our incredible show. Here's to our Guys and Dolls!

I was in the ensemble in Footloose, a Ballroom Dancer in Cinderella and I am very excited to play Agatha this year! She reminds me of myself a lot in Guys and Dolls. She always cares about her people and wants to make everyone happy. I can't wait for you all to see our amazing show!

I'm also on the Speech and Debate team and play pit percussion for the marching band and the violin in orchestra. I love singing, dancing, reading, writing, making music, and acting.

Brannen Fullmer (Harry the Horse)

Hi! My name is Brannen Fullmer, I'm 16, and live in Grover. When it comes to high school musicals, I've been around the block a time or two. I was eight years old in my first musical when I had the role of Michael Banks in Mary Poppins (Hi Jordy!) Ever since I've been hooked. I've been in Fiddler on the Roof, Addams Family, (Cousin It) The Little Mermaid, (Flounder) and Cinderella last year. My hobbies are based around pretty much everything outdoors, I'm also on the golf team.

Corby Collard (Big Jule)

You probably only recognise the hair. It is my pride and joy! I love musical theater! That started when my older siblings were in musicals. I especially love the villains, and thank goodness I get to be one this year! My older sister, Arlee, was one of the Delancey Brothers in Newsies at SVHS. I loved how she was able to fight and beat people up, and I thought, "Man, that would be pretty cool!" I love my character, a big scary gangster, who gets to inflict fear into the other characters' hearts. But when I am not acting, spontaneously singing, or quoting Lord of The Rings, I am either playing video games or doing something to do with a car. And just a final thought, did you know that if you water water, it grows?

Fennec Burton (Cop)

Theater is a big part of my life. Previously, I have been in Footloose and Cinderella. Some of my other hobbies also include Colour Guard, Speech and Debate, as well as art and anything outdoors. I'm also a firm believer in being your true self.

Music is a big part of my life and has been a big part of my life. Being a part of this musical has been so much fun! I hope all of you enjoy watching it!

Last year, I was in the ensemble in Cinderella and I loved it so much! Now it is one of my favorite after-school activities. This year I'm very grateful that I got a part that was perfect for me and I hope that I'm making my family, friends and especially Tami and Gina proud. I wouldn't have found my

I have attended Dezi's Dance Studio for a number of years and I am currently in a ballroom class. I really enjoy being in SVHS Singcopation and it is by far the best class. Playing Nathan Detroit has been very challenging and fun because he never flat lines he is always full of energy. # Guys and Dolls

A Musical Romantic Comedy Involving the Unlikeliest of Manhattan Pairings

"Guys and Dolls" is a beloved Broadway musical that premiered in 1950, with music and lyrics by Frank Loesser and book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows. It is based on two short stories by Damon Runyon, a writer known for his colorful characters and depiction of New York City's underworld during the Prohibition era.

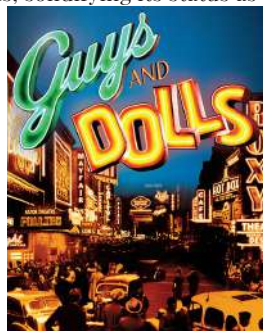

Set in the hustle and bustle of 1940s New York City, "Guys and Dolls" revolves around the intertwining stories of two couples: Nathan Detroit, the organizer of illegal gambling games, and his long-suffering fiancée of 14 years, Miss Adelaide, a performer at the Hot Box nightclub; and Sky Masterson, a suave high-rolling gambler, and Sarah Brown, a devout missionary at the Save-a-Soul Mission.

Nathan Detroit, desperate to find a location for his next craps game, bets Sky Masterson that he can't take Sarah Brown on a date to Havana, Cuba. Sky takes the bet, and the ensuing romance between him and Sarah leads to unexpected personal growth and changes in both characters. Meanwhile, Nathan struggles to find a venue for his game while dealing with the persistent Miss Adelaide and her desire for marriage.

The musical features memorable songs such as "Luck Be a Lady," "Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat," "Adelaide's Lament," and "I've Never Been in Love Before," all of which contribute to the show's enduring popularity.

"Guys and Dolls" is celebrated for its witty dialogue, catchy tunes, and lively dance numbers. It won the Tony Award for Best Musical in 1950. Since then, it has enjoyed numerous revivals and adaptations, solidifying its status as a classic of American musical theater. Its timeless themes of love, redemption, and the clash between morality and temptation continue to resonate with audiences around the world.

Director's Note

Have you ever wanted to re-live your high school days? Most of us would answer with a firm, "no!" Well, that's exactly what I've inadvertently been doing the last two and a half months. Guys and Dolls was my very first high school musical. It was as a sophomore that I fell in love with Sky, Sarah, Nathan, Adelaide, and the rest of the cast of characters. I wasn't prepared for the memories each line and song lyric would bring back, and I've fallen in love with the show and this cast all over again.

At its heart, this musical explores the universal themes of love and redemption. Through the unlikely romance between the suave gambler Sky Masterson and the devout missionary Sarah Brown, we witness the transformative power of love and the capacity for change within us all.

As we embark on this journey together, I encourage you to embrace the spirit of the story and immerse yourself in the colorful world of Damon Runyon's characters. Let yourself be swept away by the infectious melodies of Frank Loesser's iconic score and the dazzling choreography that brings the streets of New York to life.

I am incredibly proud of the hard work and dedication that our young cast and crew have put into bringing this production to life. It has been a joy to work with them every day. They make my life brighter. Their talent and passion shine through in every scene, and I am confident that their performances will leave you entertained and inspired.

So sit back, relax, and enjoy the show! Thank you for joining us on this musical adventure, and may "Guys and Dolls" fill your hearts with joy and your spirits with laughter.

Musical regards,

Tami Nielsen
