From Classroom to the World: The Unlikely Origins of a Musical Legend

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat was not the first musical Andrew Lloyd Webber and I wrote together, but it was the first to be performed. Its world premiere, however, was not in the West End or a grand concert hall or even in a theatre, but in a London school.

Our initial attempt at writing a musical - The Likes of Us - had never attracted the interest of producers (or anyone else for that matter) and was eventually abandoned. Somewhat humbled by our failure to conquer theatreland, we accepted an offer from a school teacher friend to write an end-of-term musical for his pupils. The only proviso was that it should appeal to both the kids on stage and their parents in the audience.

From such modest beginnings in 1968 came the much-loved show that - to Andrew and my astonishment and delight - is still being performed all over the world. Although there have been outstanding professional productions in the last fifty-plus years (including, most recently, at the London Palladium), the show is at its freshest and funniest when performed by those for whom it was written - children.

I wish all involved, young and old, onstage, backstage or in the audience, as much fun as Andrew and I had working on it over half a century ago.

- Tim Rice, October 2021

CAST

Hallie Hokanson - Canaan Narrator Hello! I'm Hallie Hokanson, and I'm so excited to be a part of this year's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat! I live in Afton and I am the oldest daughter of Dave and Gina Hokanson. I had the best time being a part of the Teen Ensemble in last year's Hello Dolly!, and I'm so excited to be back on stage for my senior year. Outside of the musical, I stay busy as S.B.O.

Vice President, performing with Singcopation, and competing on the volleyball team. I plan to serve a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and attend BYU-Provo when I get back. A special thanks to my mom and dad, all my family, my friends, and my teachers (shoutout Kari, Balls, Baker, and of course Tami and Gina) for their constant support and encouragement. I wouldn't be here without you!

Peyton Hokanson - Canaan Narrator Hi, My name is Peyton Hokanson and I am a Junior. My parents are Dave and Gina Hokanson and I live in Afton. I'm so excited to be in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. I was in the ensemble of Hello, Dolly! last year, and I loved being part of the show. I play volleyball and love to perform as a part of Singcopation. I'm so grateful for the opportunity to perform with my sister Hallie one last time before she graduates and want to thank Tami and Gina for everything they do!

Ainsley Bowman - Egypt Narrator

Hi! I'm Ainsley Bowman, and I'm a senior at Star Valley High School. This is my fourth show here, and I've previously been in Cinderella, Guys and Dolls, and Hello, Dolly!. I'm so excited to now be one of the Narrators in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, and I feel so lucky to share this role with three of my closest friends. I'm incredibly grateful for this entire cast and crew for making my senior show so special. Outside of the musical, I'm a member of Singcopation and love working hard in choir and chasing every opportunity to sing and be on stage. A special thank you to my directors, castmates, friends, and family for all of their support!

Bria Jack - Egypt Narrator Hi, I'm Bria Jack! I'm a senior and my parents are Mandy and Tyler Jack. I live in the West Hills and I love musicals! I love singing with my whole heart. I have run cross country the last 6 years and I love writing. I like to hunt and fish when I'm with my dad because I don't think I could ever not have fun when I'm with him. I've never been in a musical until this year, and I have loved it so much. It has been such a cool experience and I am so grateful to be a part of something so special. I know this will be an experience I'll never forget!

John Hellsten - Joseph

Hi! My name is John Hellsten, I'm 17, and I am honored to be cast as Joseph in this year's musical. I first discovered my love for the stage when I was younger, performing plays at the Rock Church in Auburn, and have been hooked ever since. I am very fortunate to be the son of Stacey Townsend, and the grandson of Rich and Dyan Townsend. I love to fly and am currently working toward becoming a commercial pilot. Enjoy the show!

Tripper Ivie - Jacob Hi, I'm Tripper Ivie. I'm a sophomore at the high school, my parents are Jen and Zack Ivie, I live in Etna. I have done some JR musical performances during the summer at Ford Theater, and have been in the drama club at the high school. I also like to work on learning songs on the piano, singing, sleeping, and playing video games on VR and console in my free time.

Claire Johnson - Rachel Hi, I'm Claire Johnson, and I'm a senior at Star Valley High School. I live in Auburn with my parents, Greg and Erica Johnson. For the past three years, I've been involved in Star Valley musicals, including Guys and Dolls and Hello, Dolly!, and I've loved every minute of being part of those productions. Being on stage has been such a meaningful and exciting part of my high school experience. Outside of theatre, I enjoy creating art, snowmobiling, and spending time with my family.

Eli Christiansen - Reuben I'm a senior involved in football, track, jazz band, and ballroom dance. This year, I'm playing Reuben in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. I plan to publish my book this summer and hopefully gain a name for myself as I go through college.

Brannen Fullmer - Levi Hello! I'm Brannen. I live in Grover and my parents are Gina and Kelly Fullmer. I'm a senior and this is my 8th high school musical I've been a part of. Outside of performing you can find me scanning the high country for mule deer, tapping in birdies on the golf course, honing my ever growing skills as a dragon tamer, or dropping jigs on Jackson Lake in search of that 20 pounder. But performing has always got me by in the offseason, and this year is especially good. Enjoy the show!

Marc Harris - Issacar Hi, my name is Marc Harris, and I am so excited to be part of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as Issacar! I'm a junior from Smoot, and my parents are Matt and Katherine Harris. Being on stage is something I truly enjoy, and I'm grateful for every opportunity to perform. I live in Fairview, and some of the things I love to do include, dance, mountain biking, fishing, skiing, singing, playing the piano, mandolin, and organ, and drawing/being creative in general. When I'm not singing and dancing, you can usually find me working on anything that has a motor on it, from snow machines to trucks. After high school I plan on serving a mission for my church. I'm so grateful I have been able to be a part of this amazing production! GO BRAVES!!

Brigham Hahn - Butler

I'm Brigham Hahn, a senior at SVHS, and I'm truly excited to be part of this year's musical. I've lived in Star Valley for 12 years and love the community and the beauty of the outdoors here. My parents, Ron and Jennifer Hahn, have raised me alongside five siblings, and their support has shaped my love for both music and hard work. This is my second SVHS musical, following my freshman-year performance in Cinderella. Outside of theater, I'm a distance runner and musician, and I'm grateful for every opportunity to grow both on stage and outdoors.

Porter Ludwig - Pharoah Hi my name is Porter and I am a senior at SVHS. I live in Smoot, my parents being Kirsten and Chad Ludwig. I've participated in Guys and Dolls as the drunk man, and Hello Dolly! as Rudolph. This year, I'm the Pharaoh/ruler of Egypt. I've enjoyed participating in this musical for how fun it is, there's so much participation with everybody and it's such a blast. My favorite activities are Singcopation, golfing, snowmobiling, and spending time being an adult (and hanging out with my homies). Thanks to our directors this will be a great musical.

In 1972, Gary Bond created the role of Joseph, which was premiered at the Edinburgh International Festival

Beechman as the first female to take the Narrator role, was in 1982 and garnered six Tony nods, including Best Musical. The title role has been played by a succession of stars, including Gary Bond, Donny Osmond, Patrick Cassidy, and Jason Donovan.

It has been staged numerous times in the decades since; a new production recently toured the U.S., directed and choreographed by Hamilton Tony-winner Andy Blankenbuehler. A 2019 summer revival at the London Palladium was a smash-hit and returned to the venue in 2021.

Production History

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat was first written by Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber at the request of a friend of Andrew's father, Colet Court School choirmaster Alan Doggett, for the school's 1968 end-of-term concert.

The children's concert proved so successful that the piece, originally fifteen minutes long, continued to expand until it became a full-length professional musical. The first amateur production in America was in May 1970 at the College of the Immaculate Conception in Douglaston, New York.

Professionally, Joseph premiered at Scotland's Edinburgh Festival in 1972, and transferred to the West End's Albery Theatre the following year. The Broadway opening, with the late Laurie

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

I really wanted to hate this show! The year was 1992, and I was chosen to be a member of the Playmill Theatre's summer cast. The only problem was that they were doing Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Not only was the name way too long to say to anyone who asked me what shows we were doing, everyone I knew, and I mean everyone, loooooooved the show. I have just the tiniest of a rebellious streak in me. So if everyone was in love with Joseph, I was determined to be different and hate it.

Newsflash: It's almost impossible to hate this show! I feel like it's got everything: A large, diverse cast, all kinds of pop culture references, nearly every genre of music, a mostly true story, a lot of humor, it feels like a giant 90 minute party, and it ends with the most beautiful theme of forgiveness and family. What's not to love?

After an entire summer of playing Joseph's brother, Gad, I found myself sobbing as I was hugging Joseph during our reunion scene for the last time. This is the fourth time I've been involved in a production of "Joseph," and that is still my favorite scene. It's just perfect. The show has hopefully had you laughing all the way through and then hits you with all the feels.

So no, I couldn't keep my resolve to hate Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. In fact I love it! It will forever be in my top 10. As for my favorite brother? I'll always have a soft spot for Gad. It was while dressed as him that very summer of 1992, that I met my husband Jason who was in the audience one night towards the end of the season. So maybe this really is the most perfect show of all!
