

CHAPTER 9 TEST REVIEW

Know the following definitions:

secede	tribute	customs duties	nationalism
embargo	neutral rights	judicial review

1. What did the Judiciary Act of 1801 do?
2. Who were the War Hawks, what did they do and what two were the most well known?
3. What new amendment changed the way we voted for President and Vice President?
4. Who led a revolt of slaves on the island of Haiti forcing France to give abandon their plans for an empire in America?
5. Who broadened the powers of the Supreme Court?
6. Who was Tecumseh and what did he do?
7. What caused the Native American confederation to die?
8. Why was Marbury vs. Madison significant?
9. What were the natural boundaries of the Louisiana area?
10. Who did we buy Louisiana from, how much did we pay, who did we send to explore it, and who was their guide?
11. How was the election of 1800 decided?
12. Which battle convinced the British that the war was too costly?
13. Where was the entire U.S. before the Louisiana Purchase?
14. What was the Embargo Act?
15. Who urged Native Americans to return to the customs of their ancestors?
16. What treaty ended the War of 1812?
17. What happened to Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr?
18. After what battle did Tecumseh join forces with the British?
19. What two main rivers did Lewis and Clark follow?
20. How did the Embargo Act of 1807 hurt the U.S.?
21. What were the first two political parties?

Know the following people and what they did that was significant:

Stephen Decatur	Napoleon Bonaparte	John Marshall
Oliver Hazard Perry	the Prophet	William Henry Harrison
James Madison	Francis Scott Key	Thomas Jefferson
Zebulon Pike	Andrew Jackson	Lewis & Clark
Toussaint-Louverture	York	Sacagawea